

DL Connection Kit

With the DermLite Connection Kit you can connect your dermatoscope to your smartphone or tablet within seconds. This allows you to record photos and videos already during the examination and to transmit them wirelessly if required. Contact us for more information and installation.

You can find all connection kits in our webshop.

If you cannot find your version, please do not hesitate to contact us.